

The Union.

Junction, Kansas, June 6, 1863.

HOURS FOR CLOSING THE MAILS—
Leavenworth, 8 o'clock, P. M.
Lawrence, 12 o'clock, M. Saturday.
Cottonwood Falls, 12 o'clock, M. Thursday.

On Saturday, a heavy hail storm occurred about twenty miles to the south and west of us.

The sales of Stettauer & Bro., Leavenworth, in one day last week amounted to $18,000.

The sum of $25,000 was disbursed to the Potawatomi last week. The tribe numbers 2300 persons.

Morris County is under Martial Law. A company of the Second Colorado relieved the Morris County Rangers.

Our old correspondent, "Opkewiggle," has been made Quartermaster's Sergeant of the 8th Kansas, which is in Tennessee.

RELIGIOUS.—The Rev. J. May, German Methodist, will preach at Taylor's Hall, to-morrow afternoon, at three o'clock.

The United States Express brought into Junction two thousand dollars last Wednesday. Over one thousand were for soldiers' families.

The Commissioners to locate the Agricultural School lands are now at work some distance west of us, on the south side of the Smoky Hill. They will get but a small portion of them in that locality.

It don't rain in Kansas—not a drop. We have two heavy rains to record this week—one Monday and the other Thursday morning. Some folks have the idea that Kansas will soon dry up, and hence we make mention of these facts.

A prisoner, charged with some offense, we don't know what, was brought into Fort Riley last Wednesday, from off the Blue. He had been there once before, but escaped. It is said he has two wives living. He may get shot some day while "attempting to escape."

Watson & Rinehart, Leavenworth, do an extensive wholesale and retail business. Our merchants who have dealt with them express themselves satisfied with their bargains. It is a house of long standing, and has made an excellent reputation. See their advertisement.

Thanks to Senator Pomroy and Representative Wilder for copies of the Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War. We lack part second. Also to Professor Goodnow for a pamphlet containing important information for teachers, school directors, and others.

FROM FORT LARNED.—The Western Stage left Larned Wednesday evening at five o'clock, and arrived at this place at seven Thursday evening. There was still some excitement at Larned, but nothing definite could be learned, as the scouts that had been sent out had not returned.

The business men of Council Grove pay Revenue Tax of $500 to the United States Government.—(Council Grove Press.)

Ahl Samuel! Council Grove is a lively town; but if you will give us just $235 we will give you an order on the Deputy Collector for every cent assessed on that place, and pay you back all that may be uncollectable. That sum is precisely all the tax the Assessor believed he could legally put upon that town.—(Kansas Tribune.)

In about the same ratio is everything stretched by the Press—say one-half or two-thirds. Tell the truth, and you will not thus be caught up.

RIGHT WILL PREVAIL.—A newspaper can be run on respectable grounds. We have been demonstrating this for a year and a half. No grog shop has ever received a "puff" in our columns, but on the contrary we have held them up to our people in all their naked hellishness. Our exposure last week of the cost they created for the people at the last Court, caused two or three names to be ordered from our list. They doubtless imagined it would stop the machine. But she runs yet, "as pure and more strong in the faith," as when we had a few cents of such revenue. We hereby acknowledge the receipt of a handsome club of subscribers from Lieutenant A. C. Pierce, accompanied by the greenbacks. Also, during the week, several single subscribers.

Rum sellers may howl—we are reformers, in this respect, and thank God we haven't one cent's support from them. There are respectable men in Davis county, not patrons of this paper, who, if they knew the efforts of the whisky influence to break us down, would come to our aid. We are running this paper for the good of the country, and not to make money.

ANOTHER MESS.—First we had the election of Crawford. Doubts existing as to the expiration of the term of service of the first administration, the Supreme Court was called upon to settle it. That fixed up, the impeachment cases came on; hence the power of the Supreme Court was again invoked. Then followed the resignation of Judge Wing, and the almost simultaneous appointment of a successor by the Governor and the election of one by the people. The right to this position has yet to be settled by the Supreme Court, while such cases are accumulating. We learn by the Topeka Tribune, that Gen. Collamore has made application for a writ of Quo Warranto, ousting Hon. Ed. Russell from the office of Quartermaster General of the State. It will be remembered that Collamore was appointed to this office during the early part of Governor Robinson's administration. Subsequently Governor Robinson deposed Collamore, and appointed Gen. Charles Chadwick. Gov. Carney on coming into office appointed Hon. Ed. Russell Quartermaster. Collamore insists that he holds the position lawfully. He holds five hundred stand of State Arms under this assumption, and the Governor has had to go after them.

Verily, our politicians can run a Supreme Court of their own; we propose that one be established for them. This is the fourth time, in two and a half years, that the highest tribunal has been called upon to proportion the leaves and fishes.

Selling off at Reduced Prices.
Wishing to reduce our present stock of Dry Goods to make room for more, recently purchased, we will for the next two weeks reduce the price of Ladies' Dress Goods, Lawns, Prints, Domestic, Men and Boys' clothing, &c., &c. Those in want of such Goods can now buy them cheaper than they probably will again for twelve months. STREETER & STRICKLER.

Farragut and Banks join Grant.

The steamer New National arrived at Cairo May 30th, from off Vicksburg 26th. The news is of a cheering character, though the officers of the steamer are non-communicative.

On Tuesday it was reported and generally credited, that Farragut and Banks had arrived in the vicinity, and were co-operating were Grant and Porter, both of whom were keeping up a show of attack on the rebel works.

On Friday the Confederates had asked for and obtained a cessation of hostilities for several hours in order to bury their dead, showing their loss must have been considerable.

Gen. Sherman was still at the Bayou, with batteries planted, endeavoring to dislodge the enemy from his stronghold just across the Gulf, but thus far has been unsuccessful.

Grant thought that keeping up storming operations vigorously was doing something undoubtedly to gain time. He had three lines of assailants, entirely surrounding the rebel works, and felt buoyant and full of confidence as to the final result.

Johnston was reported coming forward, but Federal troops were there to check him and hold him at bay. There was fighting on Monday from 6 until 9 P. M., when a cessation of hostilities took place, both parties burying their dead. The battle was resumed Tuesday morning, but no particulars have yet been received. But few if any of the water batteries have been taken. Shells from Sherman's siege guns fall into the city, as they can be seen from the fleet.
